Dear Mary,

I am sorry that you do not yet have NEVER AGAIN! I have friends as far away as New Zealand who got the book from The Last Hurrah long ago enough for them to have read it and written me about it, letter here two weeks ago. If you have not dealth with the Last Hurrah, Andy and Linda who own it are good people. They are at 737 Memorial Ave., Williamsport, PA 17701.

We have sold books to Tom Davis for years without ever having any problem with him. I think I heard that he had retired and turned the business over to a son.

I've still had no response to my sixth request for copies of the book!

You have the picture right. Fred insisted on posing me with the rifle in his back yard. I did not even have a print of it.

Has Rookstool be reassigned to Austin? I thought he was the Dallas assassination expert.

I've never seen Fred's book and have no idea where they moved to. I heard many years ago that they'd moved to a place were pot was legal.

Your prescriptions are almost double what mine are so I have an idea of how burdensome they can be. Has been for 15 years.

Fortunately, Lil has no prescriptions.

We hope the two of you are making out as well as is possible.

With our love to ypu both,

Harold
